Thanks. I doubt that any of our bureaus other than the USGS will have any interest in participating but I sent out a site summary and asked all of them to make that determination by November 19. After that day, you will get an official letter saying which of the bureaus have an interest in participating on the Site Team. I doubt there will be any other than USGS but this is the procedure that Don Williams and I set up a number of years ago and that I continue to follow.
